SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

8. You must abstain from the use of alcoholic beverages and shall not enter, visit, or be present at those places where alcohol is the chief item of sale.
9. You will be monitored for a period of 90 days, with location monitoring technology, which may include the use of Radio Frequency (RF), Global Positioning System (GPS) devices, Voice Recognition or Virtual Monitoring Technology, at the discretion of the probation officer, and comply with its requirements.
The location monitoring technology will be used to monitor the following restriction on your movement in the community:

You are restricted to your residence at all times except for employment, education, religious services, medical, substance abuse, or mental health treatment, attorney visits, court appearances, court-ordered obligations, or other activities in advance as pre-approved by the supervising officer (Home Detention).

While on the Location Monitoring Program, overnight travel for employment purposes is approved at the discretion of the United States Probation Officer. You must provide the Probation Officer with all requested documentation related to the overnight travel, this includes but not limited to dates of travel, mode of transportation and accommodations. You must contact the Probation Officer within 24 hours of your return to the Eastern District of California.

You must follow the rules and regulations of the location monitoring program. Your co-payment will be determined utilizing a Sliding Fee Scale based on your disposable income.
